

Thomas More Studies

Volume 2

2007

Thomas More's Richard III

Differing Designs, Differing Rhetorics:

Why Two Versions of More's Richard III? LINK

ELIZABETH MCCUTCHEON

Questions and Discussion LINK

More on Tyranny LINK

GEORGE M. LOGAN

Questions and Discussion LINK

Educating Citizens for Self-Government:

More's History of King Richard III LINK

GERARD B. WEGEMER

Questions and Discussion LINK

More's Reflections on Complicity with Evil

In The History of King Richard III LINK

JOSEPH KOTERSKI, SJ

Questions and Discussion LINK

Comedy and Tyranny in Richard III LINK

STEPHEN W. SMITH

Questions and Discussion LINK

Concluding Round Table on Richard III LINK

WITH GEORGE M. LOGAN

CLARENCE H. MILLER

ELIZABETH MCCUTCHEON

Lawyers' Perspectives on the Sanctuary Scene in Richard III

Law and Tyranny LINK

LOUIS KARLIN, ESQ.

Law without Virtue LINK

BARBARA PANZA, ESQ.

Questions and Discussion LINK

These are the refereed proceedings from the 2006 Thomas More Studies Conference, held at the University of Dallas, November 3-5, 2006. Intellectual Property Rights: Contributors retain in full the rights to their work.