

2021-2023

CALL FOR PAPERS

Thomas More Studies Annual Conference

Venue:

The University of Dallas

When:

First Thursday - Saturday in November

Objective for the next 3 years

To encourage interdisciplinary scholarship on all 1500 pages of The Essential Works of Thomas More, and to enrich More studies by developing a sense of his whole canon.

To facilitate this objective

CTMS will provide preparatory materials for study, such as introductory videos and study outlines; see thomasmorestudies.org and essentialmore.org. We heartily welcome your collaboration and contributions in this work. Please send ideas and suggestions to Veronica Brooks at educationaloutreach.CTMS@gmail.com.

To submit a paper on any topic related to the scope of each Conference, please send your title, abstract (150-word maximum), PhD or JD completion date (if applicable), and affiliation to morestudies@gmail.com by January 30 of that Conference year. Notification of acceptance is made by February 20th and the ten-page paper is due August 30. All participants agree to read the papers of the others in their group before the Conference.

4-6 NOVEMBER, 2021 | The Young Thomas More, Life and Writings (EWTM, 1-498)
3-5 NOVEMBER, 2022 | The Imprisoned More, Life and Writings (EWTM, 1043-1500)
2-4 NOVEMBER, 2023 | The Controversial More, Life and Writings (EWTM, 499-1042)