

– CALL FOR PAPERS –

Thomas More's 1518 Utopia with Epigrammata

Thursday-Saturday, 7-9 November 2024

Call for Papers: You are invited to submit short position papers on any aspect of Thomas More's Utopia or Epigrammata, published together in combined editions in 1518. Papers exploring literary, philosophical, historical, political, theological, rhetorical, legal, or cultural dimensions of the Utopia and Epigrams are welcome, as are papers exploring the intertextual play of More's sources, his rich ironies, and the dialectical thinking his work provokes in readers.

For the conference and for the papers submitted, we ask that you use the CTMS edition, English and Latin, of Utopia found on the CTMS website; a paper copy of the 2023 CTMS Utopia is now available through Amazon. We will make available to all Conference participants an advance copy of CTMS's new translations and commentaries on More's epigrams.

Accepted papers will be distributed to the other members of your seminar group, and each participant agrees to read the others' papers of your seminar group before coming in November. The maximum length is ten double-spaced pages. Since we are using the seminar format, attendance is limited.

Deadlines:

Seminar paper abstracts are due by January 30, 2024. Acceptances will be sent by February 15, 2024.

Completed papers must be received by August 24, 2024.

Send these to:
